THE HOMESTEAD.

An Act to lay off the Homestead and Personal Property Exemption.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, as follows:

SECTION 1. Homestead, when and how exempted—Whenever the real estate of any resident in this State shall be levied on by virtue of any execution, or any other final process, obtained on any debt, such portion thereof as may be occupied by the owner as an actual homestead, and which he may then elect to regard as such, including the dwelling and buildings thereon, shall be exempt from such levy, except under an execution or other final process issued for the collection of a debt contracted

1. For the purchase of said homestead.

2. For such work and labor done for the owner of the homestead, as may constitute a laborer's lein.

3. For such labor done on the premises as may constitute a mechanics' lien.

4. For taxes accruing on said homestead.

SEC. 2. Sheriff to summon appraisers.—Before levying upon any homestead thus owned and occupied, the sheriff or other officer charged with such levy shall summon three discreet persons, qualified to act as jurors, to whom he shall administer the following oath: "I, A B, do solemnly swear [or affirm] that I have no interest, near or remote, in the homestead exemption of C D, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of appraiser [or assessor, as the case may be,] in valuing and laying off the same. So help me God."

SEC. 3. Duty of Appraisers—The said appraisers shall thereupon proceed to value the homestead, with its dwelling and buildings thereon, and lay off to said owner such portion as he may select, or any agent, attorney, or other person, in his behalf, not exceeding in value one thousand dollars, and to fix and describe the same by metes and bounds.

SEC. 4. Appraisers to make Return.—They shall then make and sign in the presence of the officer, a return of their proceedings, setting forth the property exempted, which shall be returned by the officer to the clerk of the court for the county in which the homestead is situated, and filed with the judgment roll in the action, and a minute of the same entered on the judgment docket.

SEC. 5. The levy to be made on excess.—The levy may be made upon the excess of the homestead, not laid off according to the provisions of this act, and that the officer shall make substantially the following return upon the execution: "A B, C D and E F summoned and qualified as appraiser or assessor (as the case may be), who set off to X Y the homestead exempt by law. Levy made upon the excess."

SEC. 6. Appraisers to elect—In case no election is made by the owner, his agent or attorney, or any one acting in his behalf, of the homestead to be laid off as exempt, the appraisers shall make such election for him, including always the dwelling and buildings used therewith.

SEC. 7. That whenever any resident of this State may desire to take the benefit of the homestead and personal property exemption as guaranteed by article X of the Constitution of this State, such resident (or his agent or attorney) shall apply to any Justice of the Peace of the county in which he resides, and said justice of the Peace shall appoint as assessors three disinterested persons qualified to act as jurors residing in said county, who shall, on notice by order of said justice, meet at the applicant's residence, and after taking the oath prescribed in section two of this act for appraisers, before some official authorized to administer an oath, lay off and allot to the applicant a homestead, with metes and bounds, according to the applicant's direction, not to exceed one thousand dollars in value, and make and sign a descriptive account of the same and return it to the office of the Register of Deeds.

SEC. 8. That said assessors shall set apart the personal property of said applicant, to be by him selected, articles of personalty not exceeding in value the sum of five hundred dollars, and make and sign a descriptive list thereof, and return the same to the Register of Deeds.

SEC. 9. That it shall be the duty of the Register of Deeds to endorse on each of said returns the date when received for registration, and to cause the same to be registered without unnecessary delay. The said register shall receive for registering the said returns the same fees that may be allowed him by law for other similar or equivalent services, which fees shall be paid by said resident applicant, or his agent or attorney, upon the reception of said returns by the Register.

SEC. 10. That if any person entitled to a homestead and personal property exemption, die without having had the same set apart, his widow, if he leave one, then his child and children under the age of twenty-one years, if he leave such, may proceed to have said homestead and personal property exemption laid off to her, him or them, according to provisions of sections seven and eight of this act.

SEC. 11. That when any person entitled to a homestead and personal property exemption, shall file his or her petition before a justice of the peace, to have the same laid off and set apart under the provisions of sections seven, eight, nine and ten of this act, the said justice shall make advertisement at the court house door of the county in which the petition is filed, notifying all creditors of said applicant of the time and place when and where the said petition will be heard; and the same shall not be heard, nor any decree made in the cause in less than six months nor more than twelve, from the day of making advertisement as above required.

SEC. 12. Appraisal of personal property.—Whenever the personal property of any resident of this State, shall be levied upon by virtue of any execution or other final process issued for the collection of any debt, and the owner, or any agent, or attorney in his behalf, shall demand that the same, or any part thereof, shall be exempted from sale under such execution, the sheriff or other officer, making such levy, shall summon three appraisers as heretofore provided, who, having been first duly sworn, shall appraise and lay off to the judgment debtor such articles of personal property as he, or another in his behalf select, to the value of five hundred dollars, which articles shall be exempt from said levy.

SEC. 13. Return of the same.—Return shall be made of such appraisal and setting off of personal property, in the same manner as is required in section four of this act, upon the laying off of a homestead exemption.

SEC. 14. Who is to be Appraisers.—The persons summoned to appraise the personal property exemption shall take the same oath and be entitled to the same fees as the appraisers of the homestead, and when both exemptions are claimed by the judgment debtor at the same time.

SEC. 15. Tracts not contiguous, Included.—Different tracts or parcel of land not contiguous, may be included in the same homestead, when a homestead of contiguous lands is not of the value of one thousand dollars.

SEC. 16 Costs, how Charged—The cost and expenses of appraising and laying off the homestead or personal property exemption, when the same is made under execution, shall be charged and included in the officer's bill of fees upon such execution or other final process; and when made upon the petition of the owner they shall be paid by such owner and the latter cost shall be a lien on said homestead.

SEC. 17. Liability of Officers—Any officer making a levy, who shall refuse or neglect to summon and qualify appraisers as heretofore provided for, or who shall fail to make due return of their proceedings, or who shall levy upon the homestead set off by said appraisers or assessors (as the case may be) except as herein provided, shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor, and he and his sureties shall be liable to the owner of said homestead for all costs and damages in a civil action.

SEC. 18. Liability of Appraiser.—Any officer or appraiser or assessor (as the case may be) who shall wilfully or corruptly conspire with any judgment debtor, or other appraiser, or assessor (as the case may be) to undervalue the homestead or personal property exemption of such debtor, or shall assign false metes and bounds, or make or procure to be made a false and fraudulent return thereof, shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor, and shall be answerable to the judgment creditor for all costs and damage in a civil action.

SEC. 19. Any officer or appraiser or assessor who shall wilfully or corruptly conspire with any judgment creditor, or other appraiser, or assessor, to overvalue the homestead or personal property exemption of any debtor or applicant, or shall assign false metes and boundaries, or make, or procure to be made false and fraudulent return thereof, shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor and shall be answerable to the party injured for all costs and damage in a civil action.

SEC. 20. Judgment creditor dissatisfied.—If the judgment creditor for whom the levy is made, or judgment debtor, or person entitled to homestead exemption, shall be dissatisfied with the valuation and allotment of the appraisers or assessors (as the case may be) he may, within ten days thereafter, or any other judgment creditor, within six months, and before sale under execution of the excess, notify the clerk of the township thereof, and file with him a transcript of the return of the appraisers or assessors, as the case may be, and thereupon the clerk shall notify the other trustees of the township to meet him, at a time specified, within ten days, on the premises, to reassess and allot said homestead. At the time specified the trustees shall meet on the premises and having first taken the oath prescribed for appraisers they shall view and examine the homestead laid off, and make their report as required in section 24 of this act.

SEC. 21. Who disqualified to act as Appraisers.—If any trustee, or any person summoned as an appraiser, shall be related by blood or marriage, to the debtor, or judgment creditor, or shall be a party in interest, in any action against the former, he shall be disqualified to serve in the valuations of the homestead or personal property exemptions, and another person qualified to act as juror shall be summoned and qualified in his place.

SEC. 22 When the homestead or personal property exemptions is made or reallotted on the petition of the person entitled thereto, the township trustees shall make their report as required in section 20 of this act, to the register of deeds, specifying what changes, if any, they have made in the former valuation and allotment, who shall register the same, as required in section 9, and when said homestead and personal property exemption is made, or reallotted, under execution by a judgment creditor, the township trustees shall make said return to the clerk of the Superior Court, who shall file the same and make a minute thereof on the judgment roll and the execution docket.

SEC. 23. Cost of re-assessment how Paid—If the board of trustees shall confirm the former appraisal, or shall increase the exemption allowed the judgment debtor, the levy shall stand only upon the excess remaining, and the judgment creditors shall pay all costs of the re-allotment. If they reduce the amount allowed the judgment debtor, the cost shall follow the execution and the levy shall cover the excess then remaining.

SEC. 24. How Vacated.—Any appraisal or allotment by the trustees of a township may be set aside, on application of any party interested, for fraud, complicity or other irregularity. The proceedings shall be upon petition, as in other special proceedings, and the applicant shall give bond to the opposing party for costs and damages.

SEC. 25. Fees.—The following fees and no other shall be charged in this proceeding: Each appraiser for laying off homestead or personal property exemptions, or both, one dollar; officer for summoning and qualifying appraisers and delivering returns to clerk, one dollar, clerk of Superior Court for filing return and entering minute on execution docket, 25 cents; for making transcript for township clerk when required to do so, 50 cents; township clerk for summoning trustees, 50 cents; township clerk for transmitting return, 25 cents.

SEC. 26. Acts repealed.—All acts or clauses of acts in conflict with this act, or providing other means for the laying off of a homestead or personal property exemption, are hereby repealed.

JEWISH CEREMONY OF DIVORCE.—Mr Bernard Burnstine, a well-known pawnbroker of Washington, D. C., was divorced from his wife on Thursday according to the Jewish ceremony, founded upon the scripture. The interesting ceremony took place at the residence of the parties, and was conducted by the Rabbis Phillips and Michler, of New York, who came on expressly for the purpose. The Star says:

"The formal separation took place about as follows: Rabbi Phillips having taken his position, with Rabbi Michler and Mr. Jacobson, the reader of the synagogue here, on either side, the parties were brought in, and facing the rabbis, certain passages of the Pentateuch were read, as also the divorcement article on the parchment. The wife was then called forward, and her face uncovered and her hands were placed together, the thumbs upward and extended. Rabbi Phillips asked certain questions of the husband, which were answered, and placed the parchment in his hands, and he advanced towards her, placing it in her hands, and in turn the rabbi took it. Messrs. Jacobson and Mundheim having attested their names as witnesses, to file with the records of the church, the ceremony here closed, and shortly after Mrs. B. left the room.

"It is said that Mrs. Burnstine is well provided for in the writing of divorcement, and that there are no children. By this ceremony, founded on Deuteronomy xxiv, 1, 2, 3, and 4, the parties are separated and free—the husband to marry another at any time, and the wife to marry after ninety-one days have passed, but not to a descendant of the tribe of Levi. The civil laws, however, will not permit either party to marry again unless a divorce is obtained by the regular process in the courts."

The country would have peace, if these men were willing to earn an honest living by hard and useful labor. The sheet before us was published in New York, May 8th, by the "Imperial Publishing Company." We design to give the reader some idea of its contents by quoting from its pages: "The party" says one writer on the 3rd page, "is prepared to meet the sound argument of reason," but they shall dismiss any subject not entitled to the dignity of logical discussion. Very well said. Let us see whether they have any Logic or Reason among them. What do they want? "An Imperial Republic," says one; "a strong and intelligent(!) Imperialism to take the place of this burlesque(!) government," mutters another; "our Lee as Emperor, and if he is not to be had, I turn to Gen. George B. McClellan as my choice," exclaims a Confederate soldier in Greensboro, N. C.; "merit in a threadbare coat might very probably receive a rank in the nobility, as its recognition," adds the Editor, and the secret society T. C. I. O. whose object is the advancement of Imperialism in the United States adopts for its device that Imperial crown, which you may have seen on the labels and advertisements of the champagne manufacturers in New York. A correspondent from Arkansas asks: whether the "Imperialist" is designed to carry out the views of the Pro-monarchy organization of 1853, and whether its conductors are men recognized by foreign powers as accredited agents of that organization. If the paper is not under the control of acredited agents, foreign powers should be notified accordingly. The writer admires boldness in advocating the establishment of an Empire, but doubts the prudence of secondary parties of acting without authority and assuming the leadership. The answer is: "The Imperialist is not an unauthorized publication, nor are its conductors secondary parties; it has no connection with the Pro-monarchy organization of 1853. No accredited agents of foreign powers are recognized by it, nor does any one who is not an American citizen represent it, nor exercise a controling influence in its management." Well, that is Imperialism par excellence, "such as the world never saw before." One of the most noteworthy items is a remark made by a correspondent from New Orleans: "that the effort of the South to establish an independent Southern Republic would, in a few years at most, have become a strong and intelligent Imperialism." It is a good thing, then, that it has been killed, and it would be still better, if the knowing ones, alias, the prophets, had died with it. From the quotations made, the reader may infer, that we have here the principles and party of the "Know-nothings." That they cherish mischief in their minds is likely. It is more than likely that they have neither "logic" nor "reason" in their soul; it is most likely, that they will not succeed, and it is certain that they will do wrong, whenever it may promote their selfish aims. We allow that their editorial and other articles evince care, but they do not manifest any degree of more than ordinary ability. The lower, the animal powers of the human soul, insidiousness and egotism are much more conspicuous in their productions, than the existence of a high degree of education, of reason's native vigor, and of the patriot's religious purity. They seem to have despaired to rise to any degree of competence and respectability by an honorable exertion of their mental and bodily faculties. It seems to us we recognize in their society, faces that were many years ago familiar to us. Who are these men? Some Southern men have been speaking of the change. The Democrats, it seems to us, think of it, and the Radicals are as near the execution of the plan as their rivals. The "Cincinnati Commercial," a Radical journal of established character and influence, has raised the standard of an "Imperial Republic," and says: "The consolidation of all this Empire under one government, those of us who live to see the year 1887 may join in celebrating." The Auburn News, published at the home of the ex-Secretary Seward, says: "To some the expectation of an 'Imperial Republic' [what does that mean? where is their "reason" and "logic"?] may seem too sanguine, but we are confident that it accords with the views of leading American minds."—So did the idea of Democratic government, not many years ago; so the idea of secession, Confederacy, &c., &c. If the Auburn News is reliable, (we doubt it,) "a great many changes must take place in the views of leading American minds." Hitherto their views have turned out singularly erroneous, short-sighted and deficient in common-sense, which nature bestows more abundantly upon humbler individuals.

What gives rise to this base-born desire of Empire? The prevailing demoralization. If the Empire is to usher in the golden age, we cannot but assume, that the Imperialists are altogether free from every stain of error and pollution; for monarchy would be the very best of all governments, if the monarch were an angel. Any form of government is good, if well administered; and the best form of government is a curse, if badly administered. But how is it, that morality and religion have not died out in the hearts of the Imperialists? They are opposed to the Repudiation of the Public Debt. And we give them credit for their opposition, with all our heart. "Repudiation," they say, "is the sum of all villainies, the last stage of depravity—that being reached, the government must perish. How? where? Let the avenging angel answer." They say, furthermore, "that the Democrats, a very large minority of the people, were ready for repudiation at the last Presidential canvass; that the Radicals will try to save the Republican party with the National debt, if they can; without it, if they must. Four short years will bring us to the brink and hurl us into the infernal abyss;—the only hope of salvation is a revolution, and the establishment of an Empire."

How will the Imperialists manage to pay the debt? The most important subject, the question upon which success hinges, they leave unanswered. Where is their "reason," logic and honesty? "Our National and State legislatures to-day are a disgrace to the American people," writes an old man from Wilmington, Delaware. It is greatly to be regretted that the correspondent, like all his companions, does not subscribe his name to his production. A father ought not to be ashamed of his child; the wealth and standing of the father might atone for the lack of sense in his offspring. Still more objectionable is the twaddling of the Memphis Ledger about Northern and Southern society. There are hundreds of Southern men that will everywhere command respect by their dignified reserve which renders them invulnerable. Rodomontade, on the contrary, injures the Southern character; for no intelligent man, whose judgment is worth anything, will deny to Southern society what may justly be claimed as its due. But flummery reveals, that the rhapsodist has neither the energy nor the talent to rise to the eminence of his hero, and that he aspires to emoluments and preferments which natural endowment, education and morality, inexorably deny him. What in all the world has the composition of society to do with moral or political questions? Men are governed by their personal interests. The North and the South had different objects in view. The war settled the questions between them. How can the Empire change or improve the result? There is neither "reason," nor "logic," nor justice in the Imperialists' expectation. They complain, but it does not appear that they have greater cause of complaint than other men. Their meaning is not what their language conveys to rational minds. Are they not ready to make common cause with their oppressors, to sacrifice avowed principle to self-interest, if their ambitions views can be consummated? They clamor for an Empire, with this proviso, that the Emperor shall be under their control and that the emoluments and offices are to be at their disposal. If we understand their views, it seems there is no merit, no intelligence, no morality, no humanity, no honor, nothing that deserves protection, consideration and respect, outside of their circle. They have forgotten nothing, they have learned nothing. In the strife, confusion, bloodshed and devastation of the land—in the destruction of life and property, they have much to gain, and little to lose. They are the Know-nothings of former days. If we cannot rule, we will destroy, is their motto. We are aware, that they may do evil, but we are fully persuaded that they will never establish an Empire, for they have not the least idea of the magnitude of the work; they do not know what the name implies, and they and their off-spring never had, and they are not likely to attain the stamina to wear, with grace and ease, the imperial mantle or the coronet of nobility.

Religion, and not the Empire, brings peace. Let us have religion, the spirit of self-denial and humility; Faith, Hope and Charity.

GOLD MINING

NORTH BARRIER, Cabarrus Co., N. C., May 19, 1869.

MR. EDITOR:—The chemical disintegration of ores is a great, if not the great, desideratum in gold and silver mining. Rocks of the harder varieties are pulverized by mechanical means only at great cost of power and wear, and too often with very imperfect economic results. The work may be thoroughly done, yet the sand grains, when magnified, are still little rocks—jagged and hard—and quite able to hold securely the finer grades of gold. Real disintegration is nearly impossible, except by an entire elementary change. Pulverized sulphurets are only a mass of sharp crystals until roasted; then they yield beneath the finge and when rubbed down become so infinitely divided as to show a mere color to the eye, requiring a powerful glass to detect the separate particles. In fact, the larger the proportion of sulphur, the more friable does the ore become by its removal.

Steam is frequently employed in connection with heat in the roasting furnace. Sometimes it is thrown at intervals upon the heated ores to slake the rock and help to oxidize base metals, but more commonly, it is superheated and then thrown, not upon the ores, but in the fire beneath them. The object of this is to decompose the water (steam), and thus obtain the oxygen and hydrogen of which it is formed, cheaply and in abundance.

Some of the chemical effects thus produced are very clear; others are debateable. A writer in the California Commercial Herald thus describes the Hagan or Mason method, and the supposed chemical operations resulting. "In practice, a roasting furnace is so constructed as to admit readily the superheated steam, which is formed by divesting a small portion of that contained in the boiler of the engine through a coiled pipe fixed in the top of the fire-box, where the superheating is effected. From this box it passes down into a series of stout pipes resting on the fire grates, which are pierced with small holes for its escape. A bed of live coals is maintained in the fire box of a sufficient depth to cover the escape pipes, so that the superheated steam shall be discharged into the coals without coming in contact with the air. The heated carbon decomposes the steam by combining with the oxygen, for which it has a strong affinity, thereby liberating the hydrogen, which unites with sufficient oxygen of the atmosphere coming up through the grates to support combustion, and thus keep up the necessary heat for roasting the ores. The sulphur of the ores also takes fire and helps to support combustion at a cherry red heat, by which the arsenic, antimony and other volatile substances are expelled. The oxygen of the steam uniting with the heated carbon, forms carbonic oxide, and carbonic acid gases. These gases passing up through the roasted ores in the furnace, part with their oxygen, which has a strong affinity for the iron and other base metals contained in the ore after the sulphur is driven off, resulting in the formation of oxides, carbonates and sulphates, which are either soluble or volatile, and are easily disposed of. Thus, thorough desulpburization is effected by making a double use of steam; first, as fuel to roast the ore, and then as a chemical agent to form combinations with the base metals, and yet without interfering with amalgamation."

Repeated experiments made under my own observation, confirm the main features above claimed. There is no question of the partial or entire decomposition of the steam, as its products greatly increase the fire and thus show that hydrogen is set free. It is equally certain that carbon, after enlisting oxygen from its old consort, is robbed in turn by the superior attractiveness of Iron. If any one doubts this, let him furnish the "coiled pipe fixed in the top of the fire-box where the superheating is effected," and he will learn to his cost, that oxygen is dining at his expense. Whatever may be thought of its desulphurizing power, (for that is hard to prove) it is quite certain that steam, thus heated and introduced, attacks iron with immense energy. Many experiments with this agent have failed, but never within my knowledge where the heating was slow and the air draught under control. It will be found safe to draw the charge of ore, when the iron is perfectly oxidized, as the sulphur will have been previously expelled. One of the experiments here alluded to, was made in Mason furnace upon ores from Gold Hill, N. C. It is well known here, that these ores are talcose slate, rich in sulphur, and the gold very fine. The ore was broken into egg sized pieces and less, and roasted for twenty four hours. The steam used was superheated until it would burn cotton, and introduced somewhat in the manner described by the Commercial Herald. After roasting, the ore was thoroughly and finely pulverized, and amalgamated in a revolving barrel with mercury, the charge being kept warm with a jet of steam admitted through one of the journals, and treated for five hours. It was a mill process throughout, but well done. This ore yielded at the mine from ten to fifteen dollars per ton at first working, although the tailings were re-worked—in some instances several times—and always with fair results. In this first working, the yield was $293.35 per ton, but the tailings gave only a trace of gold in repeated fire assays. We had certainly obtained 99 per cent of what the ore contained.

Another and similar test was made upon ores from Excelsior, California. They were nearly as heavy as blocks of cast iron, and hard beyond any I have even met with in N. C.

This charge was roasted thirty hours, and was then not wholly oxidized in the centre of the largest lumps. It was treated in other respects like the Gold Hill samples, and yielded forty-five dollars and some cents per ton, the tailings assaying $4.74. In this case we obtained slightly more than 90 per cent as compared with a fire assay, from ores that were exceptionally obdurate and contained, besides sulphur, antimony and arsenic.

Two samples of iron ore were treated; both gave up their sulphur and one its phosphorus; the other retained a portion of phosphorus. One of these tests was interesting in another respect. As soon as the fire was started and the steam admitted, the air draft was entirely shut off, so that the combustion of the fuel was sustained wholly by the products of steam unmixed with atmospheric air. The appearance of the ore was scarcely changed by the roasting, although it crushed easily under a hammer; yet, as before stated, it was perfectly desulphurized, although not in the least oxidized. Had atmospheric air been freely admitted during the roasting, I am sure it would have been but a mass of oxide. What became of the oxygen furnished by the steam—an amount quite ample to support combustion—I leave others to determine.

In my last, I spoke of a furnace whose flue inclined about 30 degrees; it should have from 12 to 15 degrees.

W. HELM.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Vital Statistics of the United States

Show that periodical fevers and acute and chronic disorders of the stomach and bowels, are among the most prominent and fatal diseases in this country. Disobedience to the laws of health, as regards diet; the use of pernicious stimulants; and the wear and tear of business excitement, and of "fast life" generally, have much to do with the prevalence of these maladies in our cities; while in the West, and especially in the newly opened districts, they are chiefly due to Malaria, unwholesome water, and the exposure and privation incident to life in new settlements.

NOW, IT IS A FACT that it is as possible to protect the human system against these maladies, as to guard life and property against the incursions of assassins and thieves. Strengthen the vital organization with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and it becomes as capable of resisting the active principle of epidemic or endemic disease, as a fire-proof safe is of resisting the action of combustion. This is the experience of thousands who have remained unscathed by malarious disorders in the sickliest seasons, while their neighbors who neglected to tone and regulate their systems with this unequalled medicinal stimulant, have fallen thick and fast around them. Weakness invites disease. Vigor repels it. Help nature to fight the good fight with infection, whether it be in the air, the water, or the soil, with this matchless preparation,—a compound of the rarest vegetable extracts with the purest of all diffusive stimulants.

A Family Medicine.

THE PAIN KILLER is a purely vegetable compound; and, while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it it a perfectly safe medicine, even in the most unskilful hands.—For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has, without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of Cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skilful physician. In India, Africa and China, where the dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy.

THE PAIN KILLER—We have known the high character of this medicine, and that it is used with great success and satisfaction in our very best families. It is the favorite medicine of our missionaries in heathen lands, where they use it more than all else together for the diseases that abound in those warm climates. It should be kept in every house, and be in readiness for sudden attacks of sickness.—Christian Press.

JOB-PRINTING.

All kinds of Job-Printing executed at the TIMES office.

We have just received a fine assortment of the latest styles of type, and are prepared to execute at short notice any kind of printing that may be called for, in style unsurpassed by any establishment in the State, and at moderate prices.

We take the following item from the Nashville Christian Advocate: "A curate in a town near Sheffield, who is said to entertain rigid Ritualistic notions, after fasting through Lent, resolved to undergo the ordeal of simulating the death, burial and resurrection of the Saviour. Accordingly, he ordered to be provided for him on Good Friday a coffin, in which he expressed his intention of entombing himself until the third day (Easter Sunday.) Before the day appointed the circumstances reached the vicar, who immediately ordered the destruction of the coffin, much to the grief of the enthusiast.

A strange and romantic affair occurred at the time of the Chicotnoir crevasse, in Louisiana, last week. A young lady had engaged herself to one gentleman, a Mr. J. S. D., and subsequently fell in love with another, a Captain L, and engaged herself to him also. Her parents forced her away from the city, and compelled her to marry the first lover. Before the ceremony was concluded, the inundation from the crevasse occurred, and shook the house so that everything was thrown into panic and confusion. During the confusion, the second lover, the gallant Captain, appeared and carried off the bride, and went with her to a house, where he was also married—for the ceremony was again interruped by the first bridal party, which had pursued—and, as each bridegroom claims the bride, the question is to be decided in the courts. All this would seem unnatural in a novel, but it is nevertheless a veritable occurrence.

The elections recently held in Bavaria resulted generally in favor of a union of North and South Germany. "Austria," says the Emperor Francis Joseph in his speech closing the session of the Austrian Reicharath, "Austria offers full liberty to the people of every nation, and guarantees their right of self-government."

We find in one of our Exchanges, that a home for the reformation of Female inebriates is to be opened in Chicago. It is to be furnished with special reference to the accomodation of the educated and refined, who may have unfortunately become addicted to the use of intoxicating drinks or opium, as well as those whose position in social life has been less advantageous.

Business men and capitalists would find it to their advantage to call at the office of Caldwell & Brenizer, and examine the Perpetual Insurance plan of the Liverpool & London & Globe Fire Insurance Company. Assets $17 000,000. May 19 1m

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

EXCELSIOR!—I have recently bought at great cost two of

THE BEST CAMERAS

IN THE WORLD.

The maker of one, J. H. Dallmeyer, of London, received a gold and silver medal at the Paris Exposition. The other is a Parallactic Solar Camera, made by the celebrated optician, Herman Roetgers, of Germany. The best judges pronounce this the best instrument in the world. With the

BEST INSTRUMENTS,

The best of light and the best materials, I guarantee Pictures to surpass any thing in the State, and to

EQUAL ANY IN THE WORLD,

Either from old ambrotypes, Daguerreotypes, or from life. I am prepared to make any size picture as good, if not better than the original from finger ring size up to life size.

In making this announcement I would return my great thanks for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon me in the past, and pledge my best efforts in producing GOOD PICTURES in the future. The best judges are most pleased, and speak most flatteringly, but the pictures will speak well for themselves. Come all and see.

Those owing me for Pictures will confer a great favor by paying their bills at once, and save annoyance, if not cost.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.

The undersigned, thankful for the patronage bestowed upon his establishment, respectfully informs the public he has secured the services of Mr. FRANKLIN, an experienced Baker, who has been long and favorably known in Raleigh, and is now better than ever prepared to supply his customers with the

BEST QUALITY OF BREAD,

Fresh every day. He is also prepared to do all manner of

PLAIN AND FANCY BAKING,

And will fill all orders for any thing in this line from wedding parties, picnic or excursion parties and private families, guaranteeing satisfaction in every instance. W. N. PRATHER, & CO.

CAUTION!

We desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufasturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that A close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them; as they are the losers thereby. It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's Snuff is "a head" of all others, being made of the best stock; after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.
